- I really appreciate how available Jiaxi was during the quarter. I could always pop in his office hours when I needed help. He was also very helpful for the homework problems during discussion -- he cleared up PLENTY of confusion every time. Sometimes, if we got something wrong or said something wrong he could be a little aggressive in correcting us, which is understandable because wording matters when explaining and proving things in math. However, it could be approached more lightly. I thank Jiaxi for helping us with the homeworks and concepts as he thoroughly went through examples, but always encouraged us to find the answer on our own.
- Very good TA. Hints on HW really promoted learning without just giving out answers.
